

Special Religious Education (SRE) Participation Letter

A feature of the public education system in NSW is the opportunity to provide time during the school week for education in ethics, faith and morality from a religious or non-religious perspective. Parents have the option to decide whether they would like their child to participate in these scripture lessons. The school website www.camden-h.schools.nsw.gov.au provides information on these options to support parent/carer choice. For more information please click on the tab "Learning at our school" then on the link "religion and ethics".

A parent / carer may at any time notify the school in writing that they wish to change their decision. Students will continue the same arrangement as the previous year, unless a parent/carer has requested a change in writing.

For more information about Special Religious Education (SRE), including the list of approved providers, please visit: <https://education.nsw.gov.au/teaching-and-learning/curriculum/learning-across-the-curriculum/religion-and-ethics>

If your preferred SRE is not available please contact the approved provider. Students not attending SRE are given supervised alternative meaningful activities.

The following options are available at Camden High School. Please choose one.

SRE: Christian (delivered by Camden Scripture)

OR

I do not wish for my child to attend SRE.

If you select this option, your child will participate in alternative meaningful activities.
